

This is U.S.: An American Journey to Justice and Equality

Embark on journey through parts of the American South that helped define our country from the 1950's to today. This 5-day trip will take us to Tennessee, Mississippi, and Alabama. We will visit iconic sites and locations central to the development and evolution of the civil rights movement during the 1950s and 1960s. Come learn about the civil rights movement in the South as it really was and reflect on what lessons and questions its legacy poses for us today. If you are interested in our American story of the journey to social justice and equality, and its relevance for our country today, this is the June Academy course for you!
