Hello Wildcat Students and Families,

This is our final Monday Memo of this rather remarkable year. We have been through so much together and we so appreciate each and every one of you for all of your hard work, perseverance, your communication, your positive attitudes, and your support. We look forward to a wonderful summer ahead where we all get to refresh, renew, and relax. We are then truly looking forward to our return in the fall as we get to start anew once again.

Please note that Sunday, 6/19 was marked as Juneteenth, the holiday that observes the end of slavery in 1865. We recognize it today, Monday, which is why the last day of school falls tomorrow. Here is an article if you are interested in learning more and a celebratory video from PBS that takes a closer look at the ways different communities throughout the nation celebrate Juneteenth Juneteenth Jamboree Celebrations (3:52 min).

Finally, please check out the schedule for tomorrow's final day of school. See you in the morning!
