

TRANSPORTATION CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

Appropriate student behavior on school buses is required to ensure the safety of all in the course of the transportation program.

The Superintendent is charged with the responsibility to formulate rules and regulations and to detail the consequences of student behavior not permitted on school buses. Under the direction of the Superintendent, school principals will ensure that transportation rules and consequences are communicated clearly to students and parents, including through the medium of student handbooks.

Approved                      November 21, 2011

CROSS REF.:                Regulation JG-R