Hello Wildcat Students and Families-

Happy to share that Ms. Flynn and I are out of quarantine (aka Black Hole of Zooms and Emails) and are back in the building with our faculty, staff and students! Symptom-free and a negative test is the way to be!

Today's communication is a quick one, focusing on a few key points:

-This week's schedule can be found below
-For the rest of this school year, the first class begins at 8:30am. We currently have too many students walking in after class has started. Please get here on time!
-A firm reminder that students are not yet permitted to leave campus during the school day. Dunkin Donuts runs, while delicious, are not yet approved.
-Over the course of the next couple weeks, we will be looking to meet with each individual class via Zoom/Webinar. We will re-emphasize the importance and necessity of following the health and safety rules and guidelines that have been in place this school year.

In the meantime, let's keep those masks on and up, those hands washed, and maintain social distancing!

Truly and sincerely,

Paul Peri and Kelly Flynn
